I am writing to you in support of the July 30th, 2009 modifications to the California Building Standards, for the installation of graywater systems for residential use. I support these changes for the following reason(s):

I think it is a great use of water to stretch our resources.

Sue Taylor

Name