Toxic Substances

Asbestos and lead paint were removed from the buildings. The newly constructed buildings now have materials that use wood forested using sustainable practices, contain recycled content, were produced regionally, and do not emit volatile organic compounds (VOC).