

I am writing to you in support of the July 30th, 2009 modifications to the California Building Standards, for the installation of graywater systems for residential use. I support these changes for the following reason(s):

A) Using gray water in my yard would cut my water

B) also save water

R. M. Lee
Name