

I am writing to you in support of the July 30th, 2009 modifications to the California Building Standards, for the installation of graywater systems for residential use. I support these changes for the following reason(s):

More water for landscaping

(Better quality life around home)

Green zone for structure protection during wildfires

Saves money, water, spots, wells

Name

Linda M. Henderson