

I am writing to you in support of the July 30th, 2009 modifications to the California Building Standards, for the installation of graywater systems for residential use. I support these changes for the following reason(s):

Saves money

Saves expensive drinking water

Simple to install

Reduces impact on septic tanks

Allows more 'green areas' for fire protection

around houses.

Michael Bornstein
Name Michael Bornstein
El Dorado County