

I am writing to you in support of the July 30th, 2009 modifications to the California Building Standards, for the installation of graywater systems for residential use. I support these changes for the following reason(s):

for use in future Co-op Ponding Projects for food bank landscaping

More work for plumbers keeping down cost of water in Edorado County

Name

MacKail