Dear Ms. Kasad:

This letter is to acknowledge receipt on June 20, 2011 of the City of Ontario submittal pertaining to Ordinance Nos. 2927 and 2928 with findings and is acceptable for filing. Your filing attests to your understanding that according to Health and Safety Code Section 17958.7 no modification or change to the California Building Standards Code shall become effective or operative for any purpose until the finding and the modification or change have been filed with the California Building Standards Commission (the Commission).

This letter attests only to the filing of these local modifications with the Commission, which is not authorized by law to determine the merit of the filing.

As a reminder, local modifications are specific to a particular edition of the Code. They must be readopted and filed with the Commission in order to remain in effect when the next triennial edition of the Code is published. In addition, should you receive Fire Protection District ordinances for ratification, it is required to submit the ratified ordinances to the Department of Housing and Community Development [H&SC Section 13869.7(c)], attention State Housing Law Program Manager, rather than the Commission.

SECTION 1. The City Council hereby finds that the following proposed amendments to the 2009 International Fire Code and the 2010 California Fire Code (1) are necessary because of local climatic, geologic and topographical conditions, or (2) are of an administrative or procedural nature, and/or do not modify building standards and are reasonably necessary to safeguard life and property within the City. This finding is supported and based upon the following express findings and determinations identifying the proposed amendments to the Codes and referencing its applicable express finding:

Section 3804.5 Container Positioning	A-2, B-2, C-1, C-2 & C-3

A. Local Geological Conditions.

A-1. The City of Ontario is subject to moderately strong to severe shaking and surface ruptures resulting from five earthquake faults located within or near the City. These local earthquake faults have the potential to cause severe personal and property damage and fire hazards. Moreover, there is also a potential for damage to roadways, water supplies and the impairment of access allowing fire equipment to respond to emergencies in the event of a severe earthquake.

A-2. Adverse geological conditions exist in portions of the City that may cause excessive flooding. Flood control facilities are not adequate to handle the water flow that occurs during major storms or prolonged rains. Some of the streets in the City are actually designed and used for flood control purposes, thus making fire and emergency access difficult during flood conditions. As a consequence, many of the streets within the City are impaired during such flood conditions and such flooding causes physical damage to the streets and the accumulation of debris, all of which hinder access to fire equipment for the purpose of responding to fire and other emergencies.

B. Local Topographical Conditions.

B-1. The topography of the City of Ontario is generally that of a gently sloping inclined plane which slopes in a southerly direction from an elevation of 1180 to an elevation of 730 at the southern boundary of the City resulting in several water pressure zones to serve the City. The elevation changes caused by the mountains and hills creates the geological foundation upon which the City is built and will continue to build.

B-2. Located within the City are two major interstate freeways and a major state highway which provide for limited under crossing access points to traverse the City. These highways also restrict the ability of the water supply grid to provide water from multiple points to all areas of the City and necessitates the use of dead-end water mains to many areas adjacent to highways.

B-3. The City is bisected from east to west by two very active railroad main route tracks used by the Southern Pacific and Union Pacific Railroads. These lines are used for both commuter and large freight transport trains, including the transporting of large quantities of hazardous materials. Limited undercrossings and overcrossings exist within the City for uninterrupted emergency vehicle passage. Moreover, emergency vehicles are routinely delayed at grade crossings until passenger trains or passing freight trains clear the grade crossings.

B-4. Two large petroleum product pipelines bisect the City along the Southern Pacific Railroad right-of-way. The pipelines are used to transport large quantities of gasoline, diesel fuel and jet fuels under high pressures. Another petroleum pipeline intersects the City along the east side en-route to the Etiwanda electrical generating station north and east of the City. While generally underground, these pipelines pass overhead at several overpasses located over main thoroughfares in the City. Damage to these pipelines during seismic events poses the dual potential of creating a time emergency and at the same time restrict emergency vehicle access within the City.

B-5. Two large, high pressure, natural gas transmission pipelines traverse the easterly part of the City, along the 1-15 Freeway and on the west side along Benson Avenue. These 36" transmission mains transport natural gas at pressures exceeding 500 psi and pass through developed residential and industrial areas. These transmission pipelines also intersect the previously mentioned petroleum pipelines. Interruption of these pipelines due to flooding or seismic events is possible and would result in reduced resources to protect the balance of the City.

B-6. A large commercial airport is located within the central portion of the City providing limited emergency vehicle access from the north to the south central portions of the City. A majority of the City is located within the approach and/or departure paths of large commercial aircraft exposing a large part of the City to potential aircraft related emergencies. Moreover, Santa Ana Winds frequently require the flight paths of arriving and departing aircraft to be reversed.

C. Local Climatic Conditions.

C-1. The City is subject to extremely strong winds, commonly referred to as "Santa Ana Winds," which can reach speeds in excess of 80 miles per hour and approach the basin from the desert via the Devore Pass. Extensive damage often occurs during such winds, including downed electric wires, downed poles, fallen trees, blowing debris, sand and dust. Blowing dust experienced during these winds has reduced visibility near zero and impacted the response times of emergency vehicles.

C-2. During the summer months, the Santa Ana Winds produce periods of extremely low humidity causing an increase in the throat of fire from dry vegetation and other common fuels. These conditions have, in the past resulted in vegetation and structure fires.

C-3. The City experiences summer temperatures in excess of 100°F. When coupled with severe Santa Ana Winds these conditions can cause a fire to spread quickly throughout portions of the City.

C-4. Weather conditions, coupled with flammable vegetation in bordering cities results in numerous wildland rims, which draw existing fire fighting forces from their structure protection duties for extended periods of time. This results in increased response times to structure fires when fire department personnel and equipment are committed to nonstructural fire protection activities.

D. Administrative/Procedural/Public Safety Amendments.

D-1. This amendment is necessary for administrative or procedural clarification and to establish administrative standards for the effective enforcement of the building standards of the City of Ontario and does not modify a building standard pursuant to California Health & Safety Code Section 17958, 17958.7, and/or 18941.5.

D-2. This amendment does not modify a building standard pursuant to California Health & Safety Code Section 17958, 17958.7, and/or 18941.5 and is reasonably necessary to safeguard life and property within the City of Ontario.
