GREEN BUILDING PLANNING FOR 2009

January 14, 2009
3:00 p.m.

DEPARTMENT of CONSUMER AFFAIRS
FIRST FLOOR HEARING ROOM
1625 NORTH MARKET BLVD
SACRAMENTO, CA 95834

The Green Building Planning Meeting is being convened to assist state agencies with further development of green building standards, which were adopted primarily as voluntary in the 2008 California Green Building Standards Code. The next phase of standards is to be drafted by the time the 2009 Code Adoption Cycle begins in July of this year, with focus group review to be scheduled for several meetings early in the year.

Interested parties are invited to hear the agencies' plans for 2009, and to offer their comments on this opportunity to demonstrate California's leadership in green building development. Following is the agenda:

ITEM:

1. Introduction by State and Consumer Services Agency Secretary Rosario Marin
2. State agency presentation of the 2008 California Green Building Standards Code
 - a) Its development with stakeholders as a primarily voluntary code, general effective date of August, 2009, and the significance for local jurisdictions
 - b) A delayed effective date for standards developed by the Department of Housing and Community Development
 - c) Questions and answers
3. State agency goals for the 2010 California Green Building Standards Code
 - a) Its further development with stakeholders input, which includes addressing comments made in the previous cycle
 - b) Moving from primarily voluntary measures to mandatory standards
 - c) Schedule for code adoption, approval, and effective date
 - d) Questions and answers
4. Other matters not listed above
5. Adjourn
