

I am writing to you in support of the July 30th, 2009 modifications to the California Building Standards, for the installation of graywater systems for residential use. I support these changes for the following reason(s):

Water has become expensive + hard to get. We need to reuse the water we can. Its ecologically sound to do so.

Christine Knapp
Name