

I am writing to you in support of the July 30th, 2009 modifications to the California Building Standards, for the installation of graywater systems for residential use. I support these changes for the following reason(s):

- ① it's environmentally sound;
 - ② it stretches our water supply;
 - ③ it reduces wastewater treatment costs.
-
-

Richard J. Boylan, PhD
Name