

State will hold expo for potential vendors

Published: Wednesday, Oct. 15, 2008 | Page 9B

Military veterans who are small-business owners can learn how to do business with state agencies at a networking expo Oct. 29 at California State University, Sacramento.

Business owners will meet with state procurement officials to find how they can participate in bidding and contracting and how they can become certified as vendors for state agencies.

The Oct. 29 event is 9 a.m. to 11:45 a.m. at the university's Alumni Center, 6000 J St. and is sponsored by the Disabled Veteran Business Enterprise Alliance and the California Small Business Association.

Reservations are required. Call the alliance at (916) 446-3510 no later than Oct. 27.