OAH CASE NO. 2012100025

ORDER AFTER DUE PROCESS
HEARING

On March 7, 2013, the due process hearing in this matter was conducted telephonically. At the conclusion of the hearing certain orders were made on the record. These orders are now reduced to writing.

ORDER

1. Closing written arguments shall be submitted by the parties no later than 5:00 p.m. on March 28, 2013. The arguments shall not exceed 30 double-spaced pages (no more than 28 lines per page, including footnotes), and shall be in 12 point font. This page limit shall not apply to cover pages, tables of content, tables of authorities, or proofs of service that are included with the briefs.
2. During the review of the exhibits, it appeared that one or both parties did not have the other party's recordings of an individualized education program team meeting that each recorded on April 25, 2012. The Administrative Law Judge (ALJ) does have both recordings. The parties shall ensure that they each also have both recordings, and if necessary provide a copy to the other.
3. On February 15, 2013, the ALJ's recording device developed problems. Both parties recorded the due process hearing. To ensure a complete record, the parties are ordered to provide the ALJ and each other with recordings of the proceedings each made on February 15, 2013, beginning at 4:35 p.m.
