OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE HEARINGS
STATE OF CALIFORNIA

In the Matter of:

PARENT ON BEHALF OF STUDENT,

v.

SAN JOSE UNIFIED SCHOOL DISTRICT.

OAH Case No. 2014030082

ORDER OF DETERMINATION OF
SUFFICIENCY OF DUE PROCESS COMPLAINT

On February 28, 2014 Student filed a Due Process Hearing Request¹ (complaint) naming the San Jose Unified School District (San Jose).

On March 10, 2014, San Jose filed a Notice of Insufficiency (NOI) as to Student's complaint.

APPLICABLE LAW

The named parties to a due process hearing request have the right to challenge the sufficiency of the complaint.² The party filing the complaint is not entitled to a hearing unless the complaint meets the requirements of title 20 United States Code section 1415(b)(7)(A).

A complaint is sufficient if it contains: (1) a description of the nature of the problem of the child relating to the proposed initiation or change concerning the identification, evaluation, or educational placement of the child, or the provision of a free appropriate public education (FAPE) to the child; (2) facts relating to the problem; and (3) a proposed resolution of the problem to the extent known and available to the party at the time.³ These requirements prevent vague and confusing complaints, and promote fairness by providing the named parties with sufficient information to know how to prepare for the hearing and how to participate in resolution sessions and mediation.⁴

¹ A request for a due process hearing under Education Code section 56502 is the due process complaint notice required under title 20 United States Code section 1415(b)(7)(A).

² 20 U.S.C. § 1415(b) & (c).

³ 20 U.S.C. § 1415(b)(7)(A)(ii)(III) & (IV).

The complaint provides enough information when it provides “an awareness and understanding of the issues forming the basis of the complaint.”⁵ The pleading requirements should be liberally construed in light of the broad remedial purposes of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act and the relative informality of the due process hearings it authorizes.⁶ Whether the complaint is sufficient is a matter within the sound discretion of the Administrative Law Judge.⁷

DISCUSSION

San Jose only challenges the sufficiency of a portion of Student’s Issue 5. Accordingly, only the sufficiency of Issue 5 is addressed in this Order.

The facts alleged in Issue 5 of Student’s complaint are sufficient to put San Jose on notice of the issues forming the basis of the complaint. Issue 5 of Student’s complaint alleges procedural violations, including that San Jose failed to provide information in Student’s parent’s primary language. San Jose asserts that this is insufficient because Student, “fails to describe in any detail what information his Parent has not been receiving...” That degree of detail is not required for a complaint to be deemed sufficient. Issue 5 provides adequate facts about the problem to permit San Jose to respond to the complaint and participate in a resolution session and mediation. Therefore, Issue 5 of Student’s complaint is sufficient.
