EXAMINATION
INFORMATION*QUALIFICATIONS APPRAISAL PANEL INTERVIEW – WEIGHTED 100%

This examination will consist of a Qualifications Appraisal Panel Interview weighted 100%. The QAP will consist of pre-determined job-related questions. In order to obtain a position on the eligible list, a minimum rating of 70% must be attained. COMPETITORS WHO DO NOT APPEAR FOR THE INTERVIEW WILL BE DISQUALIFIED FROM THE EXAMINATION.

It is anticipated that interviews will be held during January 2016 in Sacramento, Oakland, Los Angeles, and San Diego. Other locations may be added as warranted.

Special Note:

If conditions warrant, this examination may utilize an evaluation of each competitor's experience and education compared to a standard developed from this class specification. For this reason, it is especially important that each competitor take special care in filling out his or her application accurately and completely. List all experience relevant to the "Requirements for Admittance to the Examination" shown on this announcement, even if that experience goes beyond the seven-year limit printed on the application. Supplementary information will be accepted, but read the "Requirements for Admittance to the Examination" carefully to see what kind of information will be useful to the staff doing the evaluation.

SCOPE

Candidates should be prepared to answer questions related to the following areas:

A. Knowledge of:

1. Graphostatics and stress analysis
2. Strength, use, and properties of the materials of building construction, standard specifications and loadings, and building codes applying to building and other engineering structures
3. Soil mechanics applying to building construction
4. Interpretation and application of the laws and regulations governing schoolhouse construction
5. Principles of effective supervision and planning, organizing, directing, and reviewing the work of a staff
6. Office's Equal Employment Opportunity Program objectives
7. A manager's role in the Equal Employment Opportunity Program and the processes available to meet objectives

B. Ability to:

1. Review and judge the quality of office and field structural engineering work, and make technical investigations on structural engineering problems
2. Interpret and apply the laws and regulations governing school house construction
3. Plan, organize, direct, and review the work of a staff
4. Analyze situations accurately and take effective action
5. Prepare technical specifications and write comprehensive but concise reports
6. Effectively contribute to the Office's Equal Employment Opportunity objectives

ELIGIBLE LIST
INFORMATION

An OPEN STATEWIDE eligible list will be established for the Department of General Services. This list will be abolished 12 months after it is established unless the needs of the service and conditions of the list warrant a change in this period.

VETERANS' PREFERENCE

Veterans' Preference will be granted for this examination. Effective January 1, 2014, in accordance with Government Codes 18973.1 and 18973.5, whenever any veteran, widow or widower of a veteran, or spouse of a 100 percent-disabled veteran achieves a passing score on an open examination, he or she shall be ranked in the top rank of the resulting eligibility list. This section shall not apply to any veteran who has been dishonorably discharged or released.

GENERAL INFORMATION

It is the candidate's responsibility to contact the DGS Office of Human Resources at (916) 376-5400 three days prior to the written test date if s/he has not received his/her notice; or three weeks after the final filing date if there is no written test.

If a candidate's notice of oral interview or performance test fails to reach him/her prior to the day of the interview due to a verified postal error, s/he will be rescheduled upon written request.

Applications are available at local offices of the Employment Development Department, the Department noted on the bulletin, or on the Internet at <http://jobs.ca.gov>.

If you meet the requirements stated on the reverse, you may take this examination, which is competitive. Possession of the entrance requirements does not assure a place on the eligible list. Your performance in the examination described on the other side of this bulletin will be compared with the performance of the others who take this test, and all candidates who pass will be ranked according to their scores.

The Department of General Services reserves the right to revise the examination plan to better meet the needs of the service if the circumstances under which this examination was planned change. Such revision will be in accordance with the civil service law and rules and all competitors will be notified.

Examination Locations: When a written test is part of the examination, it will be given in such places in California as the number of candidates and conditions warrant as determined by the departmental testing office. Ordinarily, interviews are scheduled in Sacramento, San Francisco and Los Angeles. However, locations of interviews may be limited or extended as conditions warrant.

Eligible Lists: Eligible lists established by competitive examination, regardless of date, must be used in the following order: 1) subdivisional promotional, 2) departmental promotional, 3) multidepartmental promotional, 4) servicewide promotional, 5) departmental open, 6) open. When there are two lists of the same kind, the older must be used first. Eligible lists will expire from one to four years unless otherwise stated on this bulletin.

General Qualifications: Candidates must possess essential personal qualifications including integrity, initiative, dependability, good judgment, and ability to work cooperatively with others; and a state of health consistent with the ability to perform the assigned duties of the class. A medical examination may be required. In open exams investigation may be made of employment records and personal history--fingerprinting may be required.

Veterans' Preference: Effective January 1, 2014, in accordance with Government Codes 18973.1 and 18973.5, Veterans' Preference will be awarded as follows:

1. Any veteran, widow or widower of a veteran, or spouse of a 100 percent disabled veteran, who achieves a passing score in an entrance examination, shall be ranked in the top rank of the resulting eligibility list. Any veteran who has been dishonorably discharged or released is not eligible for veteran's preference.
2. An entrance examination is defined, under the law, as any open competitive examination.
3. Veterans' Preference is not granted once a person achieves permanent civil service status.

Veteran status is verified by the California Department of Human Resources (CalHR). Directions to apply for Veterans' Preference are on the Veterans' Preference Application (Std. Form 1093), which is available at <http://jobs.ca.gov/Job/VeteransInformation>, and the Department of Veterans Affairs.

High School Equivalence: Equivalent to completion of the 12th grade may be demonstrated in any one of the following ways: 1) passing the General Educational Development (GED) Test; 2) completion of 12 semester units of college-level work; 3) certification from the State Department of Education, a local school board, or high school authorities that the candidate is considered to have education equivalent to graduation from high school; or 4) for clerical and accounting classes, substitution of business college work in place of high school on a year-for-year basis.
