Attachments: Quality rating guide.docx; Architecture Worksheet_120610.xls; Project Schedule Worksheet_120610.xls

Here's a couple of worksheets from the EDR project, plus the rating guide they used to determine how many points to assign based on the quality of the responses.

The criteria in the rating guide were changed only slightly for each of the evaluation categories. This one is for the project schedule worksheet. The one for architecture would say "The Bidder has demonstrated a comprehensive and insightful understanding of the EDR architecture requirements and/or provided an innovative approach."
