

DIRECT CONSTRUCTION UNIT

1328.12

New 06/05)

The Direct Construction Unit (DCU) is the State's in-house construction contractor. It provides, for the use of all agencies, a ready force of designers, supervisors and craftspersons capable of doing any construction project in case of emergency or when it has been determined to be in the best interest of the State to directly undertake the work per Public Contract Code section 10122.
