

All information technology expenditures are subject to audit at the discretion of the Department of Finance.