The Real Property Services Section (RPSS) offers a full range of real estate and property management services to all state agencies. The RPSS serves as the state's agent in the acquisition and disposal of state-owned real property for many state agencies, providing centralized services in the following areas:

Site selection	Leasing of state-owned property
Appraisal review	Appraisal review
Relocation assistance	Surplus property sales
Property management	Review of real estate transactions conducted by other state agencies
Appraisal	Due diligence studies for verification of title
