

SAM – INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY
(California Department of Technology)

FEASIBILITY STUDY PARTICIPATION
(Reviewed 03/11)

4923

The feasibility study must be based on an understanding of the needs, priorities, and capabilities of: (1) the users of the information that is to be provided; and (2) the agency unit or program that will have operational responsibility for the information technology application. Representatives of program management and staff must participate in the feasibility study process.