

New Commissioners Appointed...

Governor Schwarzenegger appointed two new commissioners to the California Building Standards Commission on November 22, 2010.

Danielle Paxson, 41, of Playa del Rey, has been appointed to the Building Standards Commission. She has served as an associate for KPFF Consulting Engineers since 2004. Previously, Paxson was project manager for Nakaki Bashaw Group from 2000 to 2004 and project engineer for the Englekirk Companies from 1992 to 2000. She is a member of the Precast and Prestressed Concrete Institute, Structural Engineers Association of Southern California and the American Institute of Steel Construction. This position requires Senate confirmation and the compensation is $100 per diem. Paxson is a Democrat.

Douglas Williams, 55, of Santa Rosa, has been appointed to the Building Standards Commission. He has served as fire chief since 1996 and as assistant chief and fire marshal from 1985 to 1996 for the Rincon Valley Fire Protection District. Williams was an industrial engineer for A.O. Smith Corporation from 1979 to 1985. Williams is a member of the International Association of Fire Chiefs and board member of the Sonoma County Fire Chiefs Association and Mark West Chamber of Commerce. He is the California vice president of the Western Fire Chiefs Association, section chief for Northern Division of Fire Protection Officers and member of the Workers' Compensation Program for the Fire Agencies Self Insurance System. This position requires Senate confirmation and the compensation is $100 per diem. Williams is a Republican.
