Kevin Day
Associate Governmental Program Analyst

Kevin joined the California Building Standards Commission (CBSC) in September 2010 as a Staff Services Analyst. His responsibilities at CBSC are diverse and matched only by his enthusiastic demeanor. Kevin tracks and provides bill analysis for pertinent legislation, supports the technical staff on a variety of levels, and serves as a content author for the CBSC website.

Prior to his appointment with CBSC, Kevin worked as an Office Technician for the State and Consumer Services Agency (SCSA). In his role at SCSA he provided administrative assistance to the General Counsel and the Insurance Advisor, performing a variety of tasks including legislative tracking, processing constituent correspondence, and helping to facilitate the quarterly SCSA Business Continuity Committee meetings.

Before entering state service Kevin worked in several areas of the private sector, which included commercial maintenance, telecommunications, and the restaurant industry. Kevin earned an Associate of Arts Degree from Sacramento City College. In his spare time he enjoys all forms of entertainment media, including literature, music, film, television, video games, trivia, and comic books.
