Pamela A. Maeda
Office Technician

While Pamela is new to state service, she brings a wealth of private sector experience to the California Building Standards Commission (CBSC). In addition to sixteen years with Hewlett-Packard in Roseville, California where she held a variety of administrative positions, Pamela has a rich background in volunteer service. She joined CBSC in May 2014.

During her tenure with Hewlett-Packard, Pamela participated in the development of internal policy and manuals, employee mentoring and training, and was responsible for facilitating employee meetings and events. As a Collections Specialist she assisted customers with reconciliation of past due accounts and established innovative methods to streamline processes for same. Pamela participated in customer site visits for clients such as Ford Motor Company in Dearborn, Michigan and the County of Sacramento Municipal Service Agency.

An enthusiastic volunteer, Pamela has served in many leadership roles in parent organizations' at Oakmont High School, Roseville Joint Union High School District, and Warren T. Eich Intermediate and Crestmont Elementary Schools in Roseville. As president, secretary, committee member or computer lab assistant she has proven to be an energetic self-starter.

Pamela was born and raised in California's Silicon Valley and has been in the Sacramento area since 1982. She is the very proud mother of two adult children, daughter Stephanie and son Kyle. Pamela's hobbies include scrapbooking, knitting and painting.
