

I am writing to you in support of the July 30th, 2009 modifications to the California Building Standards, for the installation of graywater systems for residential use. I support these changes for the following reason(s):

1. Reduce stress on septic tank
2. Save water with projected drought

Gabe Kutschler

Name