

I am writing to you in support of the July 30th, 2009 modifications to the California Building Standards, for the installation of graywater systems for residential use. I support these changes for the following reason(s):

Saves wells & septic Promotes re use of precious water Provides more water to landscape to prevent structures burning in wildfires.

Mike Seymour
Name