

I am writing to you in support of the July 30th, 2009 modifications to the California Building Standards, for the installation of graywater systems for residential use. I support these changes for the following reason(s):

conservation of water!

Graywater allows me to use less ETD water - Gray-water for landscaping makes sense

Paula Lee
Name El Dorado County