

I am writing to you in support of the July 30th, 2009 modifications to the California Building Standards, for the installation of graywater systems for residential use. I support these changes for the following reason(s):

*I would like to use my washing machine
water to water my yard + plants.*

This would save water.

John P. Kearney
Name