

I am writing to you in support of the July 30th, 2009 modifications to the California Building Standards, for the installation of graywater systems for residential use. I support these changes for the following reason(s):

We have such a water supply issue in our county, we just have to make use of graywater. This new code is much more user friendly. Thank you!!

John's Leslie Sellman-Sant
Name