

For Immediate Release

February 1, 2012

Contact:

Michael Liang
(916) 376-1821
(916) 475-8843 (mobile)

Surplus State Property up for Auction at State Warehouse
Computers, cell phones, furniture, much more for sale to general public

SACRAMENTO – The California Department of General Services announced today that it will hold one of its regularly scheduled state surplus property auctions in Sacramento on Saturday, February 4, 2012 starting at 10 a.m. The auction will take place at 1700 National Drive in Sacramento

Hundreds of surplus property items ranging from surplus office furniture, computers and cell phones from state agencies to property seized by the California Highway Patrol or confiscated by the National Transportation Security Administration will be on sale to the general public.

Auction and auction preview details include:

- Auction Preview Day, Friday, February 3, 2012, 8:00 a.m. to 3:00 pm.
- Auction Day, Saturday, February 4, 2012. Pre-auction preview 8:00 a.m. to 9:45 a.m. Auction begins at 10:00 a.m.

For additional auction information, a catalog of available items, plus terms & conditions, click here.

For a map to the surplus warehouse at 1700 National Drive, Sacramento, click here.

The Department of General Services acts as the business manager for the State of California. DGS helps state government better serve the public by providing services to state agencies including procurement and acquisition solutions, real estate management, leasing and design services, environmentally friendly transportation, and architectural oversight and funding for the construction of safe schools.

###