Linda Cabatic

Acting Director & Chief Administrative Law Judge
Office of Administrative Hearings
Department of General Services

Linda was appointed as the Deputy Director for the Office of Administrative Hearings in June 2008 and prior to her current position as Acting Director, she assisted the former Director in the many projects of the OAH and handled day-to-day operations in the Director's absence.

Prior to her appointment at OAH, she was the Chief Counsel and Deputy Director for the Office of Legal Services for DGS, where she advised the Director and Executive Staff on many legal issues and was successful in eliminating the Staff Counsel III ratios and was able to acquire and appoint the first Staff Counsel IV position for the Department.

Before coming to DGS, Linda served as the Chief Counsel for the Secretary of State's Office; Senior Deputy Legal Affairs Secretary for former Governor Gray Davis; and Senior Assistant Attorney General for the Government Law Section at the Attorney General's Office. Linda spent 18 years at the Attorney General's Office and began her legal career at the Legislative Counsel Bureau.

Linda is involved in the Asian Bar Association of Sacramento and has received the Attorney General's Award for Excellence. She is a graduate of the University of California Davis, where she served as a Senator and she also headed up various committees on the Picnic Day Board. She is also a graduate of Hastings College of the Law in San Francisco
