

State of California SB/DVBE Construction Service Needs Collaboration Summit

Tuesday, June 9, 2015
Department of General Services
707 3rd Street, 1st Floor
Executive Dining Room
West Sacramento, CA

Welcome,

On behalf the Department of General Services, welcome to the Construction Services Collaboration Summit. This summit gives state construction contracting stakeholders a forum to share ideas, validate experiences, and design the future. Our collective efforts continually launch the state towards success in creating contracting opportunities for California's small businesses and disabled veteran business enterprises. Thank you for being the difference for California's present and future.

Esteban Almanza
Acting Director
Department of General Services

Guests Providing Opening Remarks

Panorea Avdis

Chief Deputy Director
Governor's Office of Business and Economic Development

Panorea Avdis serves as the Chief Deputy Director of the Governor's Office of Business and Economic Development (GO-Biz). As the latest, in a series of high profile public and private sector positions, Panorea brings a special skill for shaping teams and policy that successfully drive economic development in California. A native from Sacramento and graduate of UC Davis, Panorea began her public service as an intern for Governor Davis, the first of three California governors she would serve in her career.

Keith Boylan

Deputy Secretary
Veterans Services

Keith Boylan was appointed February 11, 2013, by Governor Brown as Deputy Secretary for the Veterans Services Division at the California Department of Veterans Affairs. Mr. Boylan most recently served as the Government Relations Liaison for the California Association of Veteran Service Agencies. CAVSA is a consortium of non-profit veteran service agencies throughout the state that provide housing, employment, training, and mental health services to more than 20,000 veterans a year.

Michelle Schmitt

Performance Consultant
Department of General Services University
Summit Facilitator

Michelle Schmitt, MA, has 28 years of experience as a leader and innovator in state government, collaborating with state, county, and federal leaders. Her experience includes 19 years with the California Department of Social Services, where her last role was Chief of Organizational Capacity and Workforce Management. Currently, she manages the Organizational Performance and Leadership Development Programs for Department of General Services. A certified integral and somatic coach, she engages with leadership in co-creating a variety of programs, conversations, processes and experiences that result in service, connection, wholeness, and performance.
