

Local high schools net $11 million for technical ed projects

The Bakersfield Californian

Friday, Mar 28 2008 5:58 PM

Last Updated: Monday, Mar 31 2008 8:08 AM

Kern County schools received $11.1 million in grants and loans to improve career technical education facilities through repair projects and school upgrades, the state education department said. These are the details:

Sierra Sands Unified School District

- Sherman E. Burroughs High School, Engineering & Design: $6 million
- Kern High School District
- Arvin High School, Manufacturing & Product Development: $1,193,473
- Arvin High School, Arts, Media, & Entertainment: $896,993
- Bakersfield High School, Fashion & Interior Design: $18,168
- East Bakersfield High School, Manufacturing & Product Development: $737,030
- Highland High School, Engineering & Design: $19,880
- Independence High School, Building Trades & Construction: $270,248
- Independence High School, Agriculture & Natural Resources: $385,168
- Mira Monte High School, Agriculture & Natural Resources: $865,051
- Mira Monte High School, Building Trades & Construction: $520,695
- North High School, Agriculture & Natural Resources: $215,658