

Office of State Publishing (OSP)

The Office of State Publishing provides innovative printing and communication solutions and services to state, federal, county and city agencies. The Office of State Publishing:

- Produces printed publications, forms, envelopes, brochures and business cards for more than 150 state government agencies, departments and commissions.
- Is responsible for printing approximately 3,000 legislative bills per session.
- Offers other services including graphic design, bindery and interagency mail between state offices.
- Creates printed materials around the clock, five days a week.

Fast Facts

- Produces printed publications for state agencies.
- Offers graphic design services.
- Prints bills for the California Legislature.
- Is part of the DGS Interagency Support Division.