Application for List of Free or Reduced Cost Attorneys and Advocates

The Office of Administrative Hearings, as the designee of the State Superintendent of Public Instruction, is required to establish and maintain a list of persons and organizations that provide free or reduced cost representation or other assistance in preparing for special education due process hearings.

This is the application for inclusion on the list. OAH will update the list as applications are received and processed. Applications should be renewed each year. Beginning in 2012, renewal applications will be due to OAH by June each year to remain on the List of Free or Reduced Cost Attorneys and Advocates, so as to keep the list as current as possible. Please submit a completed and signed application by first class mail or by e-File to:
