v.

SAN RAMON VALLEY UNIFIED SCHOOL DISTRICT AND CONTRA
COSTA COUNTY MENTAL HEALTH.

OAH CASE NO. 2008100598

ORDER GRANTING MOTION TO ADD PARTY

On October 17, 2008, Kathryn Dobel, attorney on behalf of parents/student (Student) filed a request for a due process hearing (complaint)¹ against San Ramon Valley Unified School District (District) On February 18, 2009, attorney, on behalf of District filed a motion to add Contra Costa County Mental health (CCCMH) as a party.

Neither Student nor CCCMH submitted a response.

APPLICABLE LAW

Regarding joinder of a party, OAH considers the requirements of the Code of Civil Procedure. Under that Code, a “necessary” party may be joined upon motion of any party. Section 389, subdivision (a) of the Code of Civil Procedure defines a “necessary” party as follows:

A person who is subject to service of process and whose joinder will not deprive the court of jurisdiction over the subject matter of the action shall be joined as a party in the action if (1) in his absence complete relief cannot be accorded among those already parties or (2) he claims an interest relating to the subject of the action and is so situated that the disposition of the action in his absence may (i) as a practical matter impair or impede his ability to protect that interest or (ii) leave any of the persons already parties subject to a substantial risk of incurring double, multiple, or otherwise inconsistent obligations by reason of his claimed interest. If he has not been so joined, the court shall order that he be made a party.

¹ A request for a due process hearing under Education Code section 56502 is the due process complaint notice required under Title 20 United States Code section 1415(b)(7)(A).

Government Code section 7586, subdivision (c), provides that all hearing requests that involve multiple services that are the responsibility of more than one state department shall give rise to one hearing with all responsible state or local agencies joined as parties.

A public education agency involved in any decisions regarding a student may be involved in a due process hearing. (Ed. Code, § 56501, subd. (a).) A public education agency is defined as any public agency, including a charter school, responsible for providing special education or related services. (Ed. Code, §§ 56500, 56028.5.)

DISCUSSION

Education Code sections 56500 and 56501, subdivision (a), establish two requirements for including an entity in a special education due process hearing. First, the entity must be a public agency “providing special education or related services.” (Ed. Code, § 56500.) Second, it must be “involved in any decisions regarding a pupil.” (Ed. Code, § 56501, subd. (a).) According to Student’s allegations, CCCMH meets both of these requirements and is therefore a necessary party.

ORDER

1. The motion to add CCCMH as a party is granted. Henceforth, this matter shall be known as Parent of behalf of Student v. San Ramon Valley Unified School District and Contra Costa County Mental Health.
2. All dates currently calendared are confirmed.
