STATE OF CALIFORNIA

In the Matter of:

PARENT ON BEHALF OF STUDENT,

v.

ROSEDALE UNION ELEMENTARY SCHOOL DIST.

OAH CASE NO. 2010100597

ORDER OF DETERMINATION OF
SUFFICIENCY OF DUE PROCESS COMPLAINT

On October 10, 2010, Student filed a Due Process Hearing Request¹ (complaint) against Rosedale Union Elementary School District (District). On October 22, 2010, the District filed a Notice of Insufficiency (NOI) as to Student's complaint.

APPLICABLE LAW

The named parties to a due process hearing request have the right to challenge the sufficiency of the complaint.² The party filing the complaint is not entitled to a hearing unless the complaint meets the requirements of title 20 United States Code section 1415(b)(7)(A).

A complaint is sufficient if it contains: (1) a description of the nature of the problem of the child relating to the proposed initiation or change concerning the identification, evaluation, or educational placement of the child, or the provision of a free appropriate public education (FAPE) to the child; (2) facts relating to the problem; and (3) a proposed resolution of the problem to the extent known and available to the party at the time.³ These requirements prevent vague and confusing complaints, and promote fairness by providing the named parties with sufficient information to know how to prepare for the hearing and how to participate in resolution sessions and mediation.⁴

¹ A request for a due process hearing under Education Code section 56502 is the due process complaint notice required under Title 20 United States Code section 1415(b)(7)(A).

² 20 U.S.C. § 1415(b) & (c).

³ 20 U.S.C. § 1415(b)(7)(A)(ii)(III) & (IV).

The complaint provides enough information when it provides “an awareness and understanding of the issues forming the basis of the complaint.”⁵ The pleading requirements should be liberally construed in light of the broad remedial purposes of the IDEA and the relative informality of the due process hearings it authorizes.⁶ Whether the complaint is sufficient is a matter within the sound discretion of the Administrative Law Judge.⁷

DISCUSSION

Student’s complaint raises one issue for determination regarding whether the District violated Student’s procedural rights by predetermining its Individualized Educational Program (IEP) offers, failing to consider or obtain the input from Parents and service providers at the IEP meetings and convening an IEP meeting on a date in which Parents told the District they were not available. Student provides a sufficient factual basis regarding the alleged procedural violations and how the District’s purported procedural violations denied Parents right to meaningfully participate in the IEP process. Accordingly, this issue is legally sufficient.

The facts alleged in Student’s complaint are sufficient to put the District on notice of the issues forming the basis of the complaint. Student’s complaint identifies the issue and adequate related facts about the problems to permit the District to respond to the complaint and participate in a resolution session and mediation. The complaint identifies resolutions known to Student at the time. Accordingly, Student’s complaint is sufficient.
