OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE HEARINGS
STATE OF CALIFORNIA

In the Matter of:

PARENT ON BEHALF OF STUDENT,

v.

TWIN RIVERS UNIFIED SCHOOL DISTRICTS.

OAH CASE NO. 2013071251

ORDER OF DETERMINATION OF
SUFFICIENCY OF DUE PROCESS COMPLAINT

On July 29, 2013 Parent on behalf of Student (Student) filed with the Office of Administrative Hearings (OAH) a Due Process Hearing Request¹ (complaint) naming the Twin Rivers Unified School District (District) as respondent.

Student's complaint contains a sole issue stated thusly: "I would like to take my daughter out of that school. That school is not helping her with her educational needs. She needs more help. Since she entered that school she started exhibiting bad behavior. She leaves class every day. She has started being aggressive towards her sister." As a resolution, Student requests placement in a different school where she can receive instruction in accordance with her special needs.

On August 12, 2013, the District filed a Notice of Insufficiency (NOI) as to Student's complaint. The District contends that the complaint is not sufficient as it fails to allege any statements as to Student's unique needs and how these needs are not being met at Student's current placement.

APPLICABLE LAW

The named parties to a due process hearing request have the right to challenge the sufficiency of the complaint.² The party filing the complaint is not entitled to a hearing unless the complaint meets the requirements of Title 20 United States Code section 1415(b)(7)(A).

¹ A request for a due process hearing under Education Code section 56502 is the due process complaint notice required under Title 20 United States Code section 1415(b)(7)(A).

² 20 U.S.C. § 1415(b) & (c).

A complaint is sufficient if it contains: (1) a description of the nature of the problem of the child relating to the proposed initiation or change concerning the identification, evaluation, or educational placement of the child, or the provision of a free appropriate public education (FAPE) to the child; (2) facts relating to the problem; and (3) a proposed resolution of the problem to the extent known and available to the party at the time.³ These requirements prevent vague and confusing complaints, and promote fairness by providing the named parties with sufficient information to know how to prepare for the hearing and how to participate in resolution sessions and mediation.⁴

The complaint provides enough information when it provides “an awareness and understanding of the issues forming the basis of the complaint.”⁵ The pleading requirements should be liberally construed in light of the broad remedial purposes of the IDEA and the relative informality of the due process hearings it authorizes.⁶ Whether the complaint is sufficient is a matter within the sound discretion of the Administrative Law Judge.⁷

DISCUSSION

Student’s complaint alleges a single claim in the complaint, which is insufficiently pled as discussed below.

Student’s complaint is insufficiently pled in that it fails to provide the District with the required notice of a description of the problem and the facts relating to the problem.

MEDIATOR ASSISTANCE FOR NON-REPRESENTED PARENTS: A parent who is not represented by an attorney may request that the Office of Administrative Hearings (OAH) provide a mediator to assist the parent in identifying the issues and proposed resolutions that must be included in a complaint. ⁸Parents are encouraged to contact OAH for assistance if they intend to amend their due process hearing request.
