In the Matter of:

PARENT ON BEHALF OF STUDENT,

v.

TORRANCE UNIFIED SCHOOL DISTRICT.

OAH CASE NO. 2014010581

ORDER OF DETERMINATION OF
SUFFICIENCY OF DUE PROCESS COMPLAINT

On January 15, 2014, Student filed a due process hearing request¹ (complaint) naming the Torrance Unified School District (District).

On January 30, 2014, District filed a Notice of Insufficiency (NOI) as to Student's complaint.

APPLICABLE LAW

The named parties to a due process hearing request have the right to challenge the sufficiency of the complaint.² The party filing the complaint is not entitled to a hearing unless the complaint meets the requirements of title 20 United States Code section 1415(b)(7)(A).

A complaint is sufficient if it contains: (1) a description of the nature of the problem of the child relating to the proposed initiation or change concerning the identification, evaluation, or educational placement of the child, or the provision of a free appropriate public education (FAPE) to the child; (2) facts relating to the problem; and (3) a proposed resolution of the problem to the extent known and available to the party at the time.³ These requirements prevent vague and confusing complaints, and promote fairness by providing the named parties with sufficient information to know how to prepare for the hearing and how to participate in resolution sessions and mediation.⁴

¹ A request for a due process hearing under Education Code section 56502 is the due process complaint notice required under title 20 United States Code section 1415(b)(7)(A).

³ 20 U.S.C. § 1415(b)(7)(A)(ii)(III) & (IV).

The complaint provides enough information when it provides “an awareness and understanding of the issues forming the basis of the complaint.”⁵ The pleading requirements should be liberally construed in light of the broad remedial purposes of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act and the relative informality of the due process hearings it authorizes.⁶ Whether the complaint is sufficient is a matter within the sound discretion of the Administrative Law Judge.⁷

DISCUSSION

Student’s complaint asserts three issues with a proposed resolution for each issue. Specifically, Student asserts a denial of a FAPE for two school years (including extended school years) for allegedly failing to include academic goals and to provide an appropriate amount of specialized academic instruction in Student’s individualized education programs (IEP’s) covering the identified school years; failing to offer appropriate amounts of speech and language therapy; and failing to assess in all areas of suspected disability. The law requires that Student assert the nature of the problem and the facts relating to the problem. Student has done so here.

In Student’s complaint, proposed resolutions sought include drafting academic goals, continuing with specialized academic instruction, speech and language therapy to be provided by a nonpublic agency, and an independent education evaluation. The law requires a party to assert proposed resolutions to the extent known and available to the party at the time they file a complaint.⁸ The complaint is deemed sufficient regarding the proposed remedy.
