STATE OF CALIFORNIA

In the Matter of:

PARENT ON BEHALF OF STUDENT,

v.

NORWALK-LA MIRADA UNIFIED SCHOOL DISTRICT; ABC UNIFIED SCHOOL DISTRICT.

OAH CASE NO. 2014010898

ORDER OF DETERMINATION OF
SUFFICIENCY OF DUE PROCESS COMPLAINT

On January 17, 2014, Student's parent on behalf of Student (Student) filed a due process hearing request¹ (complaint) naming the Norwalk-La Mirada Unified School District and the ABC Unified School District.

On February 6, 2014, the ABC Unified School District (District) filed a notice of insufficiency (NOI) as to Student's complaint.

APPLICABLE LAW

The named parties to a due process hearing request have the right to challenge the sufficiency of the complaint.² The party filing the complaint is not entitled to a hearing unless the complaint meets the requirements of Title 20 United States Code section 1415(b)(7)(A).

A complaint is sufficient if it contains: (1) a description of the nature of the problem of the child relating to the proposed initiation or change concerning the identification, evaluation, or educational placement of the child, or the provision of a free appropriate public education (FAPE) to the child; (2) facts relating to the problem; and (3) a proposed resolution of the problem to the extent known and available to the party at the time.³ These requirements prevent vague and confusing complaints, and promote fairness by providing the named parties with sufficient information to know how to prepare for the hearing and how to participate in resolution sessions and mediation.⁴

¹ A request for a due process hearing under Education Code section 56502 is the due process complaint notice required under Title 20 United States Code section 1415(b)(7)(A).

² 20 U.S.C. § 1415(b) & (c).

³ 20 U.S.C. § 1415(b)(7)(A)(ii)(III) & (IV).

The complaint provides enough information when it provides “an awareness and understanding of the issues forming the basis of the complaint.”⁵ The pleading requirements should be liberally construed in light of the broad remedial purposes of the IDEA and the relative informality of the due process hearings it authorizes.⁶ Whether the complaint is sufficient is a matter within the sound discretion of the Administrative Law Judge.⁷

DISCUSSION

Student filed the complaint on January 17, 2014, but did not file a proof of service showing when the document was served on the ABC Unified School District. Normally, a district must file a notice of insufficiency within 15 days of receiving the due process request.⁸ In this case, it appears that the District did not have notice of Student’s filing until OAH sent an amended scheduling order to the District on January 29, 2014. Therefore, the NOI was timely filed.

Student’s complaint does not sufficiently allege any facts regarding this District. It is unclear which of Student’s allegations pertain to each of the two school districts named in the complaint. It is also unclear exactly what the basis for Student’s complaint is and what proposed remedy Student’s parent wishes to obtain at the hearing. Student’s parent will have to amend the complaint before this matter can proceed to hearing.

A parent who is not represented by an attorney may request that the Office of Administrative Hearings (OAH) provide a mediator to assist the parent in identifying the issues and proposed resolutions that must be included in a complaint.⁹ Parents are encouraged to contact OAH for assistance if they intend to amend their due process hearing request.
