

BEFORE THE
OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE HEARINGS
STATE OF CALIFORNIA

In the Matter of:

PARENT ON BEHALF OF STUDENT,

v.

FORTUNA UNION HIGH SCHOOL
DISTRICT AND KESEYVILLE UNIFIED SCHOOL DISTRICT.

OAH Case No. 2014080602

ORDER VACATING FIRST DAY OF
DUE PROCESS HEARING AND SETTING DUE PROCESS HEARING

On January 15, 2015, Student filed a notice of settlement and request to vacate the due process hearing dates in this matter. Student did not attach a copy of the signature page of the settlement agreement. The Office of Administrative Hearings will vacate hearing dates and set a status conference in a matter if the parties reach a final settlement agreement that requires approval of the school district's board. Here, Student asserts that the parties are executing a final settlement agreement and it will require approval of the school district's board. In order for OAH to vacate dates and set a status conference, OAH needs a copy of the executed signature page of the settlement agreement. At this time, Student has not established good cause for either a continuance or for OAH to vacate all hearing dates.

However, good cause exists to vacate the first day of the due process hearing, January 20, 2015. The parties are provided this opportunity to submit a copy of the executed signature page of the settlement agreement and notice of the date of the board meetings. Accordingly, the due process hearing in this matter is set as follows:

Due Process Hearing: January 21 – 22, 2015, at 9:30 AM, and continuing day to day, Monday through Thursday, as needed at the discretion of the Administrative Law Judge.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

DATE: January 15, 2015
