STATE OF CALIFORNIA

In the Matter of:

PARENT ON BEHALF OF STUDENT,

v.

LOS ANGELES UNIFIED SCHOOL DISTRICT.

OAH CASE NO. 2015010629

ORDER OF DETERMINATION OF
INSUFFICIENCY OF DUE PROCESS COMPLAINT

On January 15, 2015, Student filed a Due Process Hearing Request¹ (complaint) naming Los Angeles Unified School District (District) as the respondent. On January 23, 2015, the District timely filed a Notice of Insufficiency (NOI) as to Student's complaint, alleging that the complaint did not provide District with sufficient notice of the issues.

APPLICABLE LAW

The named parties to a due process hearing request have the right to challenge the sufficiency of the complaint.² The party filing the complaint is not entitled to a hearing unless the complaint meets the requirements of Title 20 United States Code section 1415(b)(7)(A).

A complaint is sufficient if it contains: (1) a description of the nature of the problem of the child relating to the proposed initiation or change concerning the identification, evaluation, or educational placement of the child, or the provision of a free appropriate public education (FAPE) to the child; (2) facts relating to the problem; and (3) a proposed resolution of the problem to the extent known and available to the party at the time.³ These requirements prevent vague and confusing complaints, and promote fairness by providing the named parties with sufficient information to know how to prepare for the hearing and how to participate in resolution sessions and mediation.⁴

The complaint provides enough information when it provides “an awareness and understanding of the issues forming the basis of the complaint.”⁵ The pleading requirements should be liberally construed in light of the broad remedial purposes of the IDEA and the relative informality of the due process hearings it authorizes.⁶ Whether the complaint is sufficient is a matter within the sound discretion of the Administrative Law Judge.⁷

DISCUSSION

Here, the complaint makes numerous factual allegations about assistive technology, student’s curriculum, events at IEP meetings, perceptions of school personnel, and allegations that a compliance complaint may be filed.

Student’s complaint is insufficient in that it fails to provide District with the required notice of a description of the problem and the facts relating to the problem. Specifically, it cannot be determined what time period or IEP Student is referring to, whether Student is alleging an issue related to assistive technology, or whether Student is alleging issues related to the IEP process.

A complaint is also required to include proposed resolutions to the problem, to the extent known and available to the party at the time. (20 U.S.C. §1415(b)(7)(A)(ii)(IV).) Here, it cannot be determined what, if any, resolution Student is proposing. Although the complaint references the legal standard for procedural problems in the IEP development process, no specific resolution could be determined from the face of the complaint.

In sum, it could not be determined from the face of the complaint what the exact problem was with the provision of special education and what the proposed resolution is. A parent who is not represented by an attorney may request that the Office of Administrative Hearings (OAH) provide a mediator to assist the parent in identifying the issues and proposed resolutions that must be included in a complaint.⁸ Parents are encouraged to contact OAH for assistance if they intend to amend their due process hearing request.
