PARENT ON BEHALF OF STUDENT,

v.

LIVERMORE VALLEY JOINT UNIFIED SCHOOL DISTRICT.

OAH Case No. 2015040882

ORDER OF DETERMINATION OF
INSUFFICIENCY OF DUE PROCESS
COMPLAINT

On April 17, 2015, Student's parent on behalf of Student filed a due process hearing request¹ (complaint) naming the Livermore Valley Joint Unified School District.

On April 28, 2015, Livermore filed a notice of insufficiency as to Student's complaint.

APPLICABLE LAW

The named parties to a due process hearing request have the right to challenge the sufficiency of the complaint.² The party filing the complaint is not entitled to a hearing unless the complaint meets the requirements of title 20 United States Code section 1415(b)(7)(A).

A complaint is sufficient if it contains: (1) a description of the nature of the problem of the child relating to the proposed initiation or change concerning the identification, evaluation, or educational placement of the child, or the provision of a free appropriate public education to the child; (2) facts relating to the problem; and (3) a proposed resolution of the problem to the extent known and available to the party at the time.³ These requirements prevent vague and confusing complaints, and promote fairness by providing the named parties with sufficient information to know how to prepare for the hearing and how to participate in resolution sessions and mediation.⁴

The complaint provides enough information when it provides “an awareness and understanding of the issues forming the basis of the complaint.”⁵ The pleading requirements should be liberally construed in light of the broad remedial purposes of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act and the relative informality of the due process hearings it authorizes.⁶ Whether the complaint is sufficient is a matter within the sound discretion of the Administrative Law Judge.⁷

DISCUSSION

Student’s complaint alleges that Student’s teacher does not send home school work or homework and does not post homework online in a timely fashion. It is not clear whether Student is alleging a denial of FAPE because the omitted conduct is required by Student’s individualized education program or if Student’s complaint is based on other concerns.

Student’s complaint is insufficiently pled in that it fails to provide Livermore with the required notice of a dispute which arises under the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act.
