PARENT ON BEHALF OF STUDENT,

v.

REDONDO BEACH UNIFIED SCHOOL DISTRICT.

OAH CASE NO. 2011020872

ORDER OF DETERMINATION OF
INSUFFICIENCY OF DUE PROCESS
COMPLAINT

On February 24, 2011, Parent on behalf of Student (Student) filed a Due Process Hearing Request¹ (complaint) Redondo Beach Unified School District (District).

On March 1, 2011, the District filed a Notice of Insufficiency (NOI) as to Student's complaint.

APPLICABLE LAW

The named parties to a due process hearing request have the right to challenge the sufficiency of the complaint.² The party filing the complaint is not entitled to a hearing unless the complaint meets the requirements of Title 20 United States Code section 1415(b)(7)(A).

A complaint is sufficient if it contains: (1) a description of the nature of the problem of the child relating to the proposed initiation or change concerning the identification, evaluation, or educational placement of the child, or the provision of a free appropriate public education (FAPE) to the child; (2) facts relating to the problem; and (3) a proposed resolution of the problem to the extent known and available to the party at the time.³ These requirements prevent vague and confusing complaints, and promote fairness by providing the named parties with sufficient information to know how to prepare for the hearing and how to participate in resolution sessions and mediation.⁴

¹ A request for a due process hearing under Education Code section 56502 is the due process complaint notice required under Title 20 United States Code section 1415(b)(7)(A).

³ 20 U.S.C. § 1415(b)(7)(A)(ii)(III) & (IV).

The complaint provides enough information when it provides “an awareness and understanding of the issues forming the basis of the complaint.”⁵ The pleading requirements should be liberally construed in light of the broad remedial purposes of the IDEA and the relative informality of the due process hearings it authorizes.⁶ Whether the complaint is sufficient is a matter within the sound discretion of the Administrative Law Judge.⁷

DISCUSSION

Student’s complaint alleges one generalized claim in the complaint, which is insufficiently pled as discussed below. The complaint appears to allege that the District failed to appropriately assess Student in all areas of suspected disability, therefore her deficits continue to impact her school performance, and as a result, Student has made no progress in her current program and placement.

Unfortunately, Student’s complaint is completely conclusory and does not contain sufficient factual allegations to support those conclusions averred in the complaint. Specifically, the complaint fails to indicate which IEP the parents are questioning; whether Parents consented to the current program and placement; whether Parents requested an additional IEP meeting to address their concerns; when was the current placement and program adopted; and is there a subsequent IEP to which the Parents have declined consent. Further, Student fails to identify which assessments Parents disagree with, and when were the assessments completed and discussed at an IEP meeting. As a result, Student’s complaint is insufficiently pled in that it fails to provide the District with the required notice of a description of the problem and the facts relating to the problem.
