STATE OF CALIFORNIA

In the Matter of:

PARENTS ON BEHALF OF STUDENT,

v.

ALHAMBRA UNIFIED SCHOOL DISTRICT.

OAH CASE NO. 2011100675

ORDER OF DETERMINATION OF
SUFFICIENCY OF DUE PROCESS COMPLAINT

On October 18, 2011 the Alhambra Unified School District (District) filed a Due Process Hearing Request¹ (complaint) naming the Parents on behalf of Student (Student) as respondents. The sole issue pled is whether the District is entitled to an order allowing it to conduct assessments of Student pursuant to the District's Assessment Plan dated September 22, 2011.

On October 25, 2011, Student filed a Notice of Insufficiency (NOI) and Response to the Complaint as to the District's complaint. The District filed a response to the NOI on October 25, 2011.

APPLICABLE LAW

The named parties to a due process hearing request have the right to challenge the sufficiency of the complaint.² The party filing the complaint is not entitled to a hearing unless the complaint meets the requirements of Title 20 United States Code section 1415(b)(7)(A).

A complaint is sufficient if it contains: (1) a description of the nature of the problem of the child relating to the proposed initiation or change concerning the identification, evaluation, or educational placement of the child, or the provision of a free appropriate public education (FAPE) to the child; (2) facts relating to the problem; and (3) a proposed resolution of the problem to the extent known and available to the party at the time.³ These requirements prevent vague and confusing complaints, and promote fairness by providing the named parties with sufficient information to know how to prepare for the hearing and how to participate in resolution sessions and mediation.⁴

The complaint provides enough information when it provides “an awareness and understanding of the issues forming the basis of the complaint.”⁵ The pleading requirements should be liberally construed in light of the broad remedial purposes of the IDEA and the relative informality of the due process hearings it authorizes.⁶ Whether the complaint is sufficient is a matter within the sound discretion of the Administrative Law Judge.⁷

DISCUSSION

The facts alleged in the District’s complaint are sufficient to put the Student on notice of the issues forming the basis of the complaint. District’s complaint identifies the sole issue and adequate related facts about the problem to permit Student to respond to the complaint as evidenced by Student’s Response to the complaint.
