OFFICE OF ADMINISTRATIVE HEARINGS
STATE OF CALIFORNIA

In the Matter of:

PARENT ON BEHALF OF STUDENT,

v.

PLEASANT RIDGE UNION SCHOOL DISTRICT.

OAH CASE NO. 2013040718

ORDER OF DETERMINATION OF
SUFFICIENCY OF DUE PROCESS
COMPLAINT

On April 12, 2013, Parent filed a Due Process Hearing Request¹ (complaint) naming Pleasant Ridge Union School District (District) as the respondent.

On April 19, 2013, District filed a Notice of Insufficiency (NOI) as to the complaint. As explained below, the complaint is insufficient.

APPLICABLE LAW

The named parties to a due process hearing request have the right to challenge the sufficiency of the complaint.² The party filing the complaint is not entitled to a hearing unless the complaint meets the requirements of Title 20 United States Code section 1415(b)(7)(A).

A complaint is sufficient if it contains: (1) a description of the nature of the problem of the child relating to the proposed initiation or change concerning the identification, evaluation, or educational placement of the child, or the provision of a free appropriate public education (FAPE) to the child; (2) facts relating to the problem; and (3) a proposed resolution of the problem to the extent known and available to the party at the time.³ These requirements prevent vague and confusing complaints, and promote fairness by providing the named parties with sufficient information to know how to prepare for the hearing and how to participate in resolution sessions and mediation.⁴

¹ A request for a due process hearing under Education Code section 56502 is the due process complaint notice required under Title 20 United States Code section 1415(b)(7)(A).

³ 20 U.S.C. § 1415(b)(7)(A)(ii)(III) & (IV).

The complaint provides enough information when it provides “an awareness and understanding of the issues forming the basis of the complaint.”⁵ The pleading requirements should be liberally construed in light of the broad remedial purposes of the IDEA and the relative informality of the due process hearings it authorizes.⁶ Whether the complaint is sufficient is a matter within the sound discretion of the Administrative Law Judge.⁷

DISCUSSION

Student’s complaint alleges factual background pertaining to Student’s medical diagnoses and history of aggressive behaviors and hospitalizations. On two occasions, it alleges, Parents requested District to assess Student, but District failed to assess, taking other measures to observe and/or accommodate Student short of assessing her. The complaint alleges that District failed in its Child Find duties, failed to assess Student, and failed to notify Parents of their procedural rights, or to provide prior written notice of the refusal to assess. The above allegations are sufficiently pled, however the complaint goes further to allege other facts which are not clearly stated as separate claims. Thus, the complaint alleges that Student was never given a behavior support plan; never given appropriate supports, services or placements; that Parents paid out of pocket for behavioral supports, a behaviorist at home, and a psychologist for Student; that Student was hospitalized; that Parents paid out of pocket for her to be placed in a group home but that Student was then removed from the group home; that Student is now in a hospital diversion program; that Student requires one-to-one assistance; and that Student requires residential treatment.

The additional facts can be construed simply as background, or as additional claims, or they might be construed to relate solely to proposed resolutions. The complaint is thus insufficiently pled in that it fails to provide District with the required notice of a description of the problem, or to put District on notice as to the basis of Student's claims.

A parent who is not represented by an attorney may request that the Office of Administrative Hearings (OAH) provide a mediator to assist the parent in identifying the issues and proposed resolutions that must be included in a complaint.⁸ Parents are encouraged to contact OAH for assistance if they intend to amend their due process hearing request.

ORDER

1. Student's complaint is insufficiently pled under section Title 20 United States Code 1415(c)(2)(D).
2. Student shall be permitted to file an amended complaint under Title 20 United States Code section 1415(c)(2)(E)(i)(II).⁹
3. The amended complaint shall comply with the requirements of Title 20 United States Code section 1415(b)(7)(A)(ii), and shall be filed not later than 14 days from the date of this order.
4. If Student fails to file a timely amended complaint, the complaint will be dismissed.
5. All dates previously set in this matter are vacated.
