STATE OF CALIFORNIA

In the Matter of:

PARENT ON BEHALF OF STUDENT,

v.

CORONADO UNIFIED SCHOOL DISTRICT.

OAH Case No. 2015110361

ORDER DETERMINING
SUFFICIENCY OF COMPLAINT

On November 3, 2015, Parent on behalf of Student filed a Due Process Hearing Request¹ (complaint) with the Office of Administrative Hearings naming the Coronado Unified School District. On November 11, 2015, Coronado filed a Notice of Insufficiency as to Student's complaint.

APPLICABLE LAW

The named parties to a due process hearing request have the right to challenge the sufficiency of the complaint. (20 U.S.C. § 1415(b) & (c).) The party filing the complaint is not entitled to a hearing unless the complaint meets the requirements of title 20 United States Code section 1415(b)(7)(A).

A complaint is sufficient if it contains: (1) a description of the nature of the problem of the child relating to the proposed initiation or change concerning the identification, evaluation, or educational placement of the child, or the provision of a free appropriate public education to the child; (2) facts relating to the problem; and (3) a proposed resolution of the problem to the extent known and available to the party at the time. (20 U.S.C. § 1415(b)(7)(A)(ii)(III) & (IV).) These requirements prevent vague and confusing complaints, and promote fairness by providing the named parties with sufficient information to know how to prepare for the hearing and how to participate in resolution sessions and mediation. (See H.R.Rep. No. 108-77, 1st Sess. (2003), p. 115; Sen. Rep. No. 108-185, 1st Sess. (2003), pp. 34-35.)

The complaint provides enough information when it provides "an awareness and understanding of the issues forming the basis of the complaint." (Sen. Rep. No. 108-185, supra, at p. 34.) The pleading requirements should be liberally construed in light of the

Whether the complaint is sufficient is a matter within the sound discretion of the Administrative Law Judge. DISCUSSION

Student's complaint alleges a single issue: "Parents request retention back to second-grade. This was denied on October 1 2015 IEP team meeting." It requests as a resolution: "The resolution can be to retain back to second grade."

The facts alleged in Student's complaint are sufficient to put Coronado on notice of the issues forming the basis of the complaint. The complaint adequately identifies a dispute over the proper grade level of Student's placement, and also identifies the specific individualized education program team meeting at which the dispute arose and was discussed. It therefore gives Coronado adequate related facts about the problem to permit it to respond to the complaint and participate in a resolution session and mediation.

ORDER

1. The complaint is sufficient under title 20 United States Code section 1415(b)(7)(A)(ii).
2. All mediation, prehearing conference, and hearing dates in this matter are confirmed.
