

MAKING CHANGES TO SOUTHWEST FLIGHTS IN CONCUR

Important Notes

- If you make any changes to a fully refundable Southwest ticket, you'll lose the ability to cancel for refund at any later point. Any itinerary change will result in the ticket to becoming non-refundable. The ticket will be converted to a credit to be used for future travel for the same traveler.
- If possible, make your Southwest changes on Concur as online transactions requiring agent intervention incur a higher service fee.
- A traveler cannot change a flight in Concur if he/she has already checked-in to the flight or if the first leg of the flight is set to depart within 30 minutes (or has departed). To change a reservation where you have already checked in for the flight, you must delete the issued boarding pass on Southwest.com. See the FAQ's – Cancellations and Changes for instructions.
- There is no limit to the number of exchanges possible.
- Concur (and Southwest) do not charge an exchange fee when making changes online through Concur.

Making Changes to Southwest Flights in Concur

Once the itinerary opens, scroll to the flight reservation and click “Change” for the segment you would like to change. If you need to change both segments, start by clicking on either one (Concur will allow you to change both segments at once).

Concur will provide the cost difference between the flights. Concur displays the difference in the Airfare Difference row of the summary. Negative values represent a refund; positive values represent additional charges. If the original fare is not refundable, Southwest will save the value in the form of a ticket credit and automatically save this ticket credit in the user's profile.

After reviewing the flight exchange summary, select "Purchase New Flights" in order for the exchange to process. Note: If the user clicks Cancel Flight Exchange, the original flights remain unchanged.
