Payment of Invoice

Upon completion of the meeting, the hotel accounting office will present to the Authorized Representative a detailed folio/invoice for all charges. If the Authorized Representative is satisfied that the charges are correct, then signature approval is given on the invoice.

If the folio/invoice is not presented upon completion of the meeting, the Contractor's accounting office will email to the Authorized Representative a detailed invoice for all charges within 30 days of the event. The Authorized Representative will review the invoice within 15 days to ensure that all charges are correct. If the Authorized Representative is satisfied that the charges are correct, he/she will authorize the Contractor in writing to process the charges as a single transaction to the Citibank Meeting Card Account Number noted above.

Disputed Charges

The Authorized Representative has the right to challenge or contest any charges to the Citibank Meeting Card Account Number which exceed amounts agreed to, are unsupported by adequate documentation, or the Authorized Representative believes there is just and reasonable cause to challenge.
