CMAS Requirements for GSA Schedules

Introduction This document provides potential CMAS contractors with tools to search for an appropriate Federal GSA schedule that meets the requirements for a CMAS contract application. Not all GSA schedules are acceptable to be offered as the base for a CMAS contract application.

GSA eLibrary Requirements For a GSA schedule to be used as the base for a CMAS contract application, it must be active and posted at the GSA eLibrary. The eLibrary posting must include:

- The current pricing for the products and/or services offered
- The current terms & conditions for the products and/or services offered

The GSA eLibrary can be accessed at: www.gsaelibrary.gsa.gov.

Base GSA Schedule Considerations Things to consider when selecting an appropriate GSA schedule upon which to base your CMAS contract application:

- All the products and/or services on a GSA schedule do not have to be offered.
 - Services such as installation, maintenance, and repair must be priced in the base GSA schedule to be included on a CMAS contract.
 - The base GSA schedule pricing is the maximum pricing allowed on a CMAS contract.
 - The CMAS contract term is based on the expiration date of the GSA schedule offered.

Components of a Complete GSA Schedule A complete GSA schedule consists of the following components:

- Cover Page
 - Ordering Instructions
 - Terms & Conditions
 - Product Descriptions
 - Service Descriptions
 - Pricing

Training Requirements For training course offers, each GSA course outline must contain the following information:

1. The course title and a brief description of the course content, to include the course format (e.g. lecture, discussion, hands-on training, etc.)
2. The length of the course
3. Mandatory and desirable prerequisites for student enrollment
4. The minimum and maximum number of students per class
5. The locations where the course is offered
6. Price (per student or per class)

If the CMAS applicant company is not the base GSA schedule holder, they must also provide the same information shown above for each of their courses offered to verify that their courses are substantially the same as the GSA courses.

Consulting Services

GSA schedules for consulting services must have labor categories with:

- Well defined functional requirements that identify the tasks to be performed. (Functional responsibilities described only as “ability to” or “experience with” are not acceptable.)
- Minimum experience requirements
- Minimum education requirements

Only one IT consulting GSA schedule may be offered as the base for a CMAS IT consulting contract, and it must encompass all the labor categories desired. This same requirement applies for non-IT consulting contracts.

GSA Schedules for Telecom Services

GSA schedules for telecommunication services under SIN 132-52 can only be considered if the offer is from the holder of the GSA schedule. These telecommunication services include, but are not limited to, web hosting, internet access, and satellite services.

GSA Schedules for Cloud Computing

GSA schedules for cloud computing software and/or related services are available on the CMAS Program.
