Selling to the State of California

Department of General Services (DGS)

Tuesday, November 2, 2004, Noon to 3:00pm

California spends more than four billion dollars for products and services each year. The DGS is California's business manager, buyer, real estate developer, IT solutions provider, and telecommunications manager and consists of 13 divisions, numerous operational offices, 4,000 employees and a budget in excess of half a billion dollars.

This workshop is an introduction to contracting with DGS, topics include:

How to Contract with the State
Supplier Base
CMAS
Contracts Register
Small Business certification & Resources
Contract Advertisement
Disabled Veteran Business Enterprise (DVBE)
Enterprise Zone Act (EZA)
Target Area Contract Preference Act (TACPA)
Local Agency Military Base Recovery Act (LAMBRA)

Workshop Location:

RCCD's Corporate Connection, Computer Training Lab
