EMERGENCY SITUATIONS

DHL reserves the right to assess temporary emergency surcharges, such as fuel surcharges, to recover costs associated with emergency situations that could not be reasonably anticipated at the time of the preparation of this Agreement. Emergency surcharges will be temporary and will be in addition to negotiated rates. Emergency surcharges will be across-the-board surcharges assessed upon DHL's general customer base. DHL will provide thirty (30) days written notice of any pending emergency situations requiring a surcharge.

SPECIAL SERVICES & ACCESSORIAL FEES

Exhibit E describes these services and current fees. DHL's fee list is available at www.dhl-usa.com/dhlfees and will be updated or supplemented from time to time.

DDP must be marked "Shipper" after the "Destination Duties/Taxes" box on the DHL airwaybill (required). No prior arrangement or consignee account number is required.

To aid in the identification of DDP shipments, Delivered Duty Paid may be noted by the shipper in the "Description of Contents" and also on the Commercial Invoice. A fee of $15.00 per shipment will apply. Billing of destination duties and taxes to a third party in destination or third country requires prior arrangement. Contact your local representative or Key Account Manager for additional information.

Destination Area Surcharge

Any shipment destined to certain zip codes outside DHL's direct domestic delivery area will be subject to an on forwarding charge of $1.75. A $10 charge may apply to ground shipments for some remote locations. To determine if this fee applies to your shipment, go to <http://www.dhl-usa.com> and enter your destination zip code for a rate inquiry, if applicable.

DHL reserves the right to fix temporary emergency surcharges to recover costs associated with emergency situations that could not be reasonably anticipated at the time of the preparation of this Agreement.
